Prayer for the Week

O Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens but we have sullied your handiwork.
Out of the mouths of the young come dire warnings.
When we look at the heavens, the work of your fingers, we ignore our reckless conduct.
What are human beings that you are mindful of them?
We have made ourselves a little higher than the angels, lording it over creation with scant forethought.
You have given us dominion over the works of your hands, which we have trampled underfoot.
O Lord, our Sovereign, invite us back to Eden, to be proper stewards, so that we might be better with that which you called good.
Amen.

Notices

No Zoom Call this Sunday

Apologies, but there will be no zoom call this Sunday.

Charity Collections Update

Thank you to all those that have donated to our recent charity collections for MHA and the Foodbank (harvest). £245 was raised for MHA and £219 for the Foodbank.

Junior Church Activity Folders

The junior church team have put together some fantastic activity folders for the children, if you would like one, please ask one of the stewards or contact Sarah in the church office.

Reminder – Please ‘book in’ for Church on Sundays

Please contact the church office before 2pm on Fridays to ‘book in’ for church on Sundays. The more people who book in the easier it is for us to plan socially distanced seating and numbers of printed notice sheets. It also saves you having to sign in on arrival. Details of who has booked in each week are kept for 21 days for Covid track and trace purposes.

Prayer Handbooks

Handbooks have now been ordered and those who requested one will be notified as soon as they arrive. If you would still like one, please contact the church office.

We Remember in Our Prayers

Those of our church community who are unwell or who have need for our prayers: John Sennett, Joan Clements, Lillian Bailey, Jeanne Pierce, Pam Wallace, Monica Faux, Pam Giles, Myrtle and Neill Truman, and Mona's mother who is currently undergoing treatment in Germany.

All our friends who are in care homes, particularly Joan Clements and Ken Chapman.

We also remember friends who have lost love ones this year.

As part of the fellowship of Churches Together in Chislehurst and Bickley this week we pray for the St Patrick's Church.
